

GASP Mentors for 2024 SPSP Meeting

- WHEN: Friday, February 9, 12:30 PM-1:30 PM PST
- WHERE: SPSP Annual Meeting in San Diego

GASP is the GLBTQ+ Alliance in Social and Personality Psychology, an affiliate of SPSP. GASP events and membership are open to all students, faculty, and other professionals, regardless of research interest, sexual orientation, or gender identity and expression. Allies are especially welcome.

Session Chairs: Lisa G. Aspinwall, University of Utah, Ryan Lei, Haverford College, and Sa-Kiera Hudson, University of California, Berkeley

Discussion Tables and Topics

1. Clayton Critcher, University of California, Berkeley
Publishing Advice From an Associate Editor at JPSP and Psych Science
2. Nic Weststrate, University of Illinois Chicago
Queer Researchers Queerly Researching Queer People: Navigating Self-Relevance, Positionality, and Triple Marginality in Your Scholarship
3. Sa-Kiera Tierra Jolynn Hudson, University of California, Berkeley
Incorporating Intersectionality into Psychology
4. Cheryl Kaiser, University of Washington
Generating Research Ideas: Strategies for Developing Ideas That Advance Theory and Address Meaningful Social Issues
5. Maureen Craig, Duke
Conducting Research with Marginalized Groups
6. Luis Rivera, Rutgers
Why Should I Go into Academia?
7. Tabea Hässler, University of Zurich
Advancing LGBTIQ+ Research Across the World – Challenges and Opportunities
8. Julie Bettergarcia, California Polytechnic State University
Interviews That Slay: Do's and Don'ts of Interviewing at a Teaching-Focused University
9. Kostadin Kushlev, Georgetown
How To Survive and Ace the Academic Job Market
10. Tessa Dover, Portland State University
Productive Discussions about Politicized Topics in the Classroom
11. Jeffrey Hunger, Miami University
Securing and Thriving in a Postdoctoral Position